Baltimore which will be encountered February 10. Going to Martinsburg with a ninetyone pin lead to roll the Martinsburg style duckpins with rubber bands, the Isemann Stars had their lead cut down Straight Game in Inter- to fifteen pins, and by that margin the locals were declared winners.

> "Pop" Hal'ey, who hates to be called the veteran of the alleys, starred in his usual capacity of lead-off man. He amassed the 150 pins in his last game, which total was not equaled by any visitor or home bowler. The West Virginians prepared a cordial welcome and entertainment for Isemann's boys, and when they parted a unanimous voice was registered in favor of another match next season. The local swimmers have been purting in a lot of time getting ready Western had no difficulty in persuading Central that it had the better team in yesterday's league battle. The Westerners were crippled in that Lester Peine has been sick for three days.

The offensive strength was weakened considerably, and although Central's defense was calculated to stop Western, the Red and White players frequently broke through on speedy individual rushes that baffled the Central players.

At no time during the centest was Central in the lead. But four Coor goals were shot by Central, and two of these were of the not shot variety, so closely did Sergeant and Weichel tend to the Central forwards, Dezendorf and Marbury, Peck outplayed both Ross White and T. ### "By" Dickson Will Help Folwell At Pennsylvania

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 27.-Byron Dickson, field coach of the University "Cotton" Cissell played a great guarding game against Peine and was nearly forced from the contest on account of personal fouls in his eagerness to hang on. K Smith, of Central, stopped "Red" Smith, of Western, for three baskets, but the Westerner did the bulk of the floor work with Peck in his effective style.

Western will be forced to lay off for several days on account of poor condition. Several of the players have been out of the line-up for a week with grip and went into yesterday's game feeling none too fit.

Dickson, field coach of the University of Pennsylvania football team last fall, was today chosen chief assistant to Robert C. Folwell, the newly elected head coach of the Red and Blue eleven. The football committee also decided to adopt Coach Folwell's suggestion that another game he added on the Saturday before the final game with Cornell on Thanksgiving Day. It was also any nounced that Harold Gaston will again coach the scrub team and that Lon Journet will have charge of the freshman squad.

Dickson was an end on the 1895-6-7 teams.

feeling none too fit.

George Colliflower, guard on the Georgetown team several years back, will coach George Washington during the remainder of the second, taking the remainder of the second Saturday night at the "Y" to return game, and while Colliflower will hardle have time to work out his nolicy a decided improvement in both spirit and play is looked for.

Catholic University was to have played Lohigh Saturday, and had a game needing. Negotiations fell through early in the season, and the team will not play despite announcements.

The first championship meeting will be held March 4, when grapplers from Yale, Brown, Harvard, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Springfield Y. M. C. A. College and other institutions will compete. Itions will compete.

THREE CHAMPIONS ASSURED TO SHOW

Harvard Man Says Time For Blooded Bulldogs and Collies Will Be Exhibited at New Ebbitt, February 3.

> At least three championship dogs will be shown at the exhibition of the Washington Kennel Club at the New lies and bulldogs and entries are coming in daily to the committee in charge, composed of R. H. Atkinson, E. Roy Routt, Dr. G. N. Payette, Capt. Grove Porter and George Goodacre, Already in the buildog classes and sixteen col-lis. This will be the largest exhibition of thoroughbred dogs ever held in the District of Columbia, outside of the A. K. C. shows.

In the buildog classes there will be five prizes. A club cup goes to the best dog and another to the best female puppy. Miss Jean G. Hinkle offers $5 and open relation, than has existed hitterto.

"There is no reason why a Harvard man and a Yale man should have anything to conceal from each other regarding their athletes or their athletic policy. Strategy in a game may be legitimate and admirable: strategy in the negotiations of friend's rivals is intextuable, and constant suspicion is as intolerable as it is unjust.

"The time for political maneuvering in athletics is gone, and should never have come. Yale, Harvard, and Princeton, closely bound together in athletics sport, are doing their best to maintain in that sport a relation of straightforward courtesy."

Dean Briggs says that he personally believes the rule banishing couches from the players' bench during a baseball game "worth maintaining," but that the question is "one of expedience rather than of right." The rule may be rescinded if its opponents present their cases with any degree of strength.
